The 2nd Annual RiverTownRun is back! With nearly 350 participants in its first year, organizers have added new fun features to grow the event even more in 2015. The route includes something for everyone: flat and scenic views of the Missouri River, quaint and historic downtown Washington, wide open spaces in rural surroundings and rolling (and very challenging!) hills.

This race benefits Foundations for Franklin County, a local non-profit agency dedicated to creating a safe and drug-free community, and helping strengthen families impacted by the disease of addiction.

Entry fee includes finishers' medals for EVERYONE, cotton T-shirts for Fun Run and 5K runners, and moisture wicking shirts for Half Marathoners, official RTR decal, runners' bag of goodies and more!

Comments from 2014 RTR participants:

- "Thanks so much for a fun and amazing race. Your team did a great job!"-- Jeff
- "Great views, challenging hills, no congestion."--Elizabeth
- "I have recommended RTR to my entire running group for next year!"--Molly
- "Beautiful setting! Nice people, too! Most of all: Thanks for organizing this run for a great cause."--Caryn
